Future of Downtown Discussed

Planners Confer With Chamber

"Beautiful Downtown Antioch" may soon become even more beautiful.

And get ready for some one-way streets.

Plans for the Central Business District were discussed Monday by village officials and members of the Chamber of Commerce.

They met for breakfast at Lorenz's Smart Country House. Professional planner Bruce Christensen, who has been working for the village, explained that the Central Business District plan is just part of the comprehensive plan for the village.

An overall land-use plan also is on display at the village hall.

CHRISTENSEN SAID that his firm noticed immediately that Antioch's downtown area is "extremely vital...very active."

"Retail sales exceed those of larger communities such as Grayslake and Fox Lake," he said. This is probably because Antioch serves parts of Kenosha and McHenry counties.

Christensen pointed out a couple of problems in the downtown area - parking and traffic, including a couple of nasty intersections that can provide problems at peak hours.

He was talking about the corner of Lake and Main and the corner of Main and Orchard.

An answer to the parking problem might be an additional 200 spaces behind the stores on the east side of Main St. The tentative downtown plan visualizes improvements for the land behind the buildings.

There are proposals for landscaping, a water retention area and some athletic fields.

"We have a severe shortage of baseball diamonds in this town," Christensen said.

IDEAS FOR SOLVING traffic problems include:

- The possibility of making Orchard a one-way street going west, and Lake a one-way street going east.
- Traffic signals at the corner of Main and Orchard.

CHRISTENSEN SAID that

PLANS FOR ANTIOCH'S DOWNTOWN area were discussed Monday when village officials met with Chamber of Commerce members. Looking at the Central Business District plan

Chamber of Commerce input and support is necessary for the implementation of the Central Business District plan.

He pointed out that the plan is merely a guide for the village "to more accurately project and direct the development of the community."

"This plan in no way regulates the use of land," he said. "It is merely a guide for the village."

He had praise for the present village planning commission.

"I judge a plan commission by how well it makes me do my job," he said.

THE PRESENT downtown plan shows a new fire station and maintenance garage on Orchard, west and across the street from the post office.

Mayor Bob Wilton pointed out that the floor in the existing fire station isn't safe.

"We have to put up a new safety building," he said. "And since the rescue squad and fire department rely heavily on daytime and business people, it should be in the downtown area."

Don Walsh, president of the Chamber of Commerce, took the occasion to thank village officials for the new Mini-Park on Main St.

Walsh said that next Monday is the day when workers will begin digging holes for the new trees to be planted in the downtown area.

"Maybe before January we'll have some trees in the ground," he said.

Bike-A-Thon Participants Get Ready

If you see a lot of bikes being pedaled around the Antioch area Saturday, don't get the idea that it's an all-out effort to save gas.

Instead, it will be an all-out effort to save lives.

Dozens of children and adults will be participating in the Antioch Township Cancer Society.

THIS YEAR'S route in Antioch will again cover 7 miles, starting at the Antioch Fire Station on Main St.

The Bike-A-Thon begins at 10 a.m. Saturday and cyclists are picking up entry blanks at schools, the police department, the State Bank of Antioch, The Shoe Box, Walsh's All-Seasons and Antioch Bowling Lanes.

Pres Reckers, chairman of the Bike-A-Thon, said he is encouraged by the response for entry blanks, indicating that proceeds may far exceed last year's total sponsor donations of $5,000 for Antioch township.

Participants are obtaining sponsors prior to Saturday's ride. Parents, teachers, friends, relatives, neighbors, merchants and businesses are being asked to sponsor participants for each mile they ride. A dime a mile would be a good start, Reckers said. Some sponsors may wish to pay more per mile.

The rain date for this second annual event is Sunday, Oct. 6.

RIDERS CAN carry a small passenger if they wish, and sponsors for the little one also can be obtained.

Sponsors should be told that their tax deductible contribution will be used for the American Cancer Society and they must sign the sponsor sheet. The riders are responsible for returning to their sponsors after the ride to collect the money pledged. All money will be turned in to the State Bank of Antioch to be deposited

THE BARRY GOLDWATER COLUMN

Optimistic About the Future

By SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER

If you are discouraged about the future of the United States, I recommend a large dose of the views held by Dr. Wernher Von Braun.

Dr. Von Braun, it will be recalled, was the father of the German V-2 rocket in World War II and a scientist who contributed greatly to American space development as a postwar employee of NASA. At the present time, he is a vice president of Fairchild Industries.

Dr. Von Braun predicts that 50 years from now people will look back and wonder how man ever managed on earth without the tools provided by the space program.

"That there could ever have been a world without spacecraft will be just as difficult for them to imagine as one without telephones and airlines is for us," the doctor writes.

His views are contained in a special article written for the golden anniversary issue of the magazine Saturday Review World. How things may appear in the year 2024 A.D. is the theme of the issue.

Dr. Von Braun sees mankind at the advanced date faced with many problems that can only be tackled successfully by a global, co-ordinated systems approach. He believes successful solutions to these problems will require continuous monitoring and surveying of the entire earth, supported by an effective communications system capable of transmitting large quantities of collected data and pictorial information to a multitude of users in almost 100 nations.

"Unmanned earth survey and communications satellites and orbiting manned observatories will form the backbone of this system," according to Dr. Von Braun.

"The domination problem of humanity during the next 50 years that will require such aids from space will arise from the collision between man's happy-go-lucky joy ride of unrestrained and unlimited growth both in numbers of people and their material expectations and the grim limitations of resources the earth can provide and of wastes it can absorb.

"Some of these problems are already upon us today. The sudden shortage in fuel oil and gasoline made us shockingly aware of our dependence on resources that for too long we have taken for granted. We would be tragically mistaken if we took our present energy crisis as an isolated incident—brought about by mischievous Arabs or profit-hungry oil moguls—as a problem of a temporary nature that will soon be resolved. We should rather accept it as a timely and deadly serious storm warning. Not only is our automotive joy ride over (a ride made possible only by a hitherto unlimited supply of cheap energy from oil) but also we will have to learn to utilize more intelligently our planet's remaining resources in metal ores and its limited ability to produce food crops for its exploding population."

In other words, Dr. Von Braun sees the future as one sprinkled with problems but one that can adequately and ultimately be handled successfully by mankind.

Four Students In Merit Program At ACHS

Antioch High School seniors Wendell G. Burris, Daniel V. Heuer, John A. Kelley and David Severson have received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

These students are among the 38,000 Commended students named on the basis of their high performance on the 1973 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT NMSQT). Commended students are in the upper 2 percent of those who are expected to graduate high school in 1975. Although the Commended students ranked high on the PSAT NMSQT, their scores were just below those of the 15,000 semifinalists who were announced in September by NMSC; Commended students do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition.

To increase their scholarship opportunities NMSC reports the Commended Students' names to the regionally accredited colleges they named as their first and second choices when they took the PSAT NMSQT in October 1973. The reports include home addresses, test scores and anticipated college major and career intentions of the Commended students.

The New Usury Law

The Illinois Legislature, in its session in 1974, changed the Illinois Interest Act to increase the amount of interest which a lender can charge the borrower. The Interest Act applies to all persons making loans of money, whether they are a private individual or someone regularly engaged in making loans. The amendments to the Act, in simplest form, provided that for a loan secured by residential real estate, a lender can charge a maximum of 9 1/2 percent interest on the loan. The amendment does not require that any lender charge 9 1/2 percent on a home loan, it merely sets that rate as the maximum rate which can be charged. On loans other than those secured by a mortgage on residential real estate, a lender may charge no more than 8 percent interest on a personal loan to an individual. The 8 percent and 9 1/2 percent interest rates and limitations do not apply to loans for business purposes or to loans to corporations or businesses.

Inflation & Electric Rates

The nation's official inflation watchers report each month that the Consumer Price Index has jumped up another percentage point or so. Rates for electric service are also on the way up. Any question concerning the need for electric service are also on the way up. Any question concerning the need for electric rate increases should be dissipated by figures describing the actual experience of a major utility company operating a large electric generating and transmission system in the eastern part of the United States.

In the company's operating area in 1946, a 16-ounce loaf of bread sold for 11 cents; in 1974, the same loaf of bread was 37 cents. Comparative statistics for other elements in the average family's cost of living were given as follows: one quart of milk 17 cents to 41 cents; one gallon of gasoline 22 cents to 55 cents and a standard development home $7,900 to $36,300.

The mortgage interest rate rose from 4.5 percent to 9 percent and the typical annual mortgage payment (60 percent mortgage) went from $316 to $2,175. Such figures tell what inflation has done to the dollar's value when it comes to paying for some of the things we cannot do without. By contrast, in 1946 this utility company sold electricity to its residential customers for an average kilowatt-hour price of 3.55 cents. In 1966, the price had dropped to 2.42 cents per kilowatt-hour and even today, after soaring costs have necessitated rate increases, the company's charge per kilowatt-hour for the average residential customer is still only 3.40 cents per kwh or 96 percent of the 1946 cost.

This is not bad in view of the fact that the major operating overhead of an electric company is made up of the costs of construction, equipment, fuel and the amount of interest or dividends that must be paid to attract investment capital required for the construction of new plants and facilities. These major elements of utility overhead have risen in price at a faster clip than just about anything else in the economy, increasing by anywhere from 150 to 300 or 400 percent in the past five or six years alone.

If there is to be enough electricity to keep the U.S. moving, electric rates must continue to go up. Power consumers and regulatory commissions must recognize the necessity of rate increases promptly given and of sufficient size to meet increased operating costs and pay returns adequate to attract investment capital. Electricity may be a necessity of modern life, but it can never be free or unaffected by inflation any more than the roof over our heads, the food we eat or, for that matter, the clean air we breathe.

ABC's Of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

All you do is pack and enjoy. Let the experts do the work and worrying. This is the new carefree way of travel; a tour is the best way to go if you want a complete vacation of everything.

A personally escorted, all-expense tour, everything taken care of (where to stay, what to do first, what to see, where to stop, how to enjoy tonight) and efficient handling of luggage, elimination of language barriers if International travel is involved, easing of border crossings - the whole works.

When you let professionally trained tour experts eliminate all the worrisome details that plague the independent traveler you save time and money. Today with all these rising costs, we are all interested in saving money. After all, you wouldn't build a house without an architect, or start a business without a lawyer; so why consider taking a trip abroad (or in fact anyplace) without professional guidance.

Many tours are a one package price - no hidden extra charges. One price covers everything; you know exactly what your trip will cost before you leave home. Read the fine print though and then compare! What is not included can sometimes cost as much as the rest of the tour.

In these days of uncertain currencies, inflation, dollar devaluation and "cut price" tours which often end up costing twice as much, with untold aggravations and wasted time; it's good to know that a bonded travel agent can book you on a

The Time Machine

70 YEARS AGO SEPT. 22, 1904

Pete Peterson of Antioch and Clare Waterson of Spring Grove met with quite an accident last week while at work rebuilding the new ice house at Loon Lake, which was destroyed by fire last spring. The whole structure suddenly gave way, and it is nothing short of a miracle that they were not instantly killed, both getting along nicely now.

Among the Antioch young people who attended the Epworth League rally at Grayslake Friday were Levi Rupert, Lula Savage and Ada Butrick.

50 YEARS AGO: OCT. 2, 1924

The auction sale of Antioch Hills last Sunday was a decided success, with fully 200 people in attendance. Mr. Abt had the Elks orchestra from Waukegan and with them in the lead, followed by big George Vogel, the crowd trooped over the entire property, placing their bids for desired property.

The county motorcycle cops that operated on Lake County highways during the summer months have been suspended by the finance committee of the supervisors.

20 YEARS AGO: SEPT. 30, 1954

Dedication of the new $235,000 addition to the Antioch Consolidated Grade School will take place Sunday. W. C. Petty, Antioch, Lake County superintendent of schools, will deliver the dedicatory address following an introduction by Richard Whitacre, superintendent of the school.

Through an arrangement with Antioch Grade School officials and George Borovicka, proprietor of Reeves Drug store, the Luick Ice Cream Co. will supply paper cups of ice cream for children in the primary grades of both the grade school and St. Peter's parochial school. Growth of enrollment has made it inadvisable to continue the traditional Monday forenoon trips to the store, a treat started in 1919 by Sidney Reeves.

The sale of the Pedersen Home Bakery building on Main St. by Mrs. Mollie Somerville to Albert Pederson, owner of the bakery has been announced. The transaction was completed Saturday.

10 YEARS AGO: OCT. 1, 1964

Twelve ladies from the Antioch area were guests of the A&P store at a luncheon at Lorenz's Country House recently. The purpose of the meeting was to give store personnel an opportunity to hear suggestions for the new A&P being built in the Antioch Plaza.

$146 has been deposited into the Lake Villa Bank for the Johnny Torri Fund account, established to help pay for a series of operations and hospital bills. Eleven-year-old Johnny needs the operations to help restore the damage done to his face when he was accidentally shot a short time ago.

Bruce Stahmer and Stuart Good, Antioch High School graduates, have returned to the school as teachers.

Altar And Rosary Plans New Season

The first meeting of St. Peter's Altar & Rosary Society will be held Tues., Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. in the family room of St. Peter's School. Barbara Goetzelman will explain the newly organized group of volunteers who have started the Tele-Care program here in Antioch. Volunteers are needed to man the telephones each day for a couple of hours.

On Nov. 12 at 8 p.m., Erickson's Sewing Center will demonstrate sewing techniques and their machines.

Chair ladies for the annual Christmas Bazaar are Marge McKinney and Helen Zien. The bazaar will be held on Dec. 7 and 8 in the lower level of the church.

Communion Sunday for women will be held on Oct. 20 at the 8 a.m. Mass. Coffee and rolls will be served afterwards and all the ladies of the parish are invited to attend.

Picnic For Naim Group

Weather permitting, a picnic is being planned for Sun., Oct. 13 at Hingston Park, Grand Ave., Waukegan. Reservations are also being taken now for the anniversary dinner.

District 34 Ponders Referendum

A referendum to increase the educational fund tax rate may be in the offing for Antioch's Elementary School District No. 34.

The possibility was discussed at a special school board meeting last week. No formal motion was carried.

The monies derived from the proposed referendum would insure continued maintenance of the schools and their programs.

Financial projections for the 1974-75 school year indicate that the Antioch elementary schools will spend $179,711 over projected revenues for the period.

Reasons cited for the deficit in operational funds were rising costs due to inflation and the re-instatement of programs which had been previously deleted from the curriculum.

It was pointed out that District 34 has the lowest tax rate for elementary school districts in Lake County.

Discussion regarding the proposed referendum will be continued at the Tues., Oct. 8 school board meeting.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Have you taken a drive in the country this past week? The leaves are turning already - such beautiful reds, golds and oranges. Somehow I keep hoping it will get warm again though.

Talked with Earl Stringer who tells me he and his wife are back from a trip to Munich, Germany and the Bavarian Alps. They went through Check Point Charlie into East Berlin and were very happy to get back out again. Earl is enjoying himself these days - rode a big motorcycle to the Post Office the other day wheeling around town in his shirt sleeves showing those guys at KenWal Dodge how to do it.

Glenda and Pete Tomaschik hosted a house-warming party in their new residence Saturday night. They had quite a large turnout and a good time was had by all (even the fleas).

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Soladay in Tomah, Wis. last week. They will harvest the cranberry crop this week.

Mrs. Myrtle Hufendick of Santa Ana Calif. is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Effie Nelson.

Rick Herdliska celebrated his birthday in style this past Monday evening. Hear tell he had a delightful dinner with some old friends who didn't forget his day, and he spent the latter part of the evening feasting on a chocolate cake and watching the football game.

Ken Smouse tells us his Studio Theatre class at the high school has had its first read through of the play "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The Moon Marigolds" - Whew! Anyway, the production dates are set for Nov. 1 and 2 and I sure hope everyone will be there. Mark your calendars now.

Celebrating birthdays this week are John Proctor and Kim

Watson on the 2nd, Heidi Kay Miller on the 3rd, special greetings to Buelah Anderson on the 5th (by the way grandma, I hear you've joined the sore ear club), to Charmaine Bywell, Agnes Glenn on the 8th and a very special wish to Sue Amundsen who celebrates on the 8th also. Also, a special wish to a nice guy who will be celebrating a milestone on the 9th.

Ken--1 more week. Suzie Baby is all prepared.

Don't forget this is the last week to register the kids for the Lyons and Ryan Punt, Pass and Kick Contest.

Also, this Saturday loads of Antioch kids will be riding their bikes for Cancer. Be sure to be alert for them if you have to travel near or on their routes.

See ya,

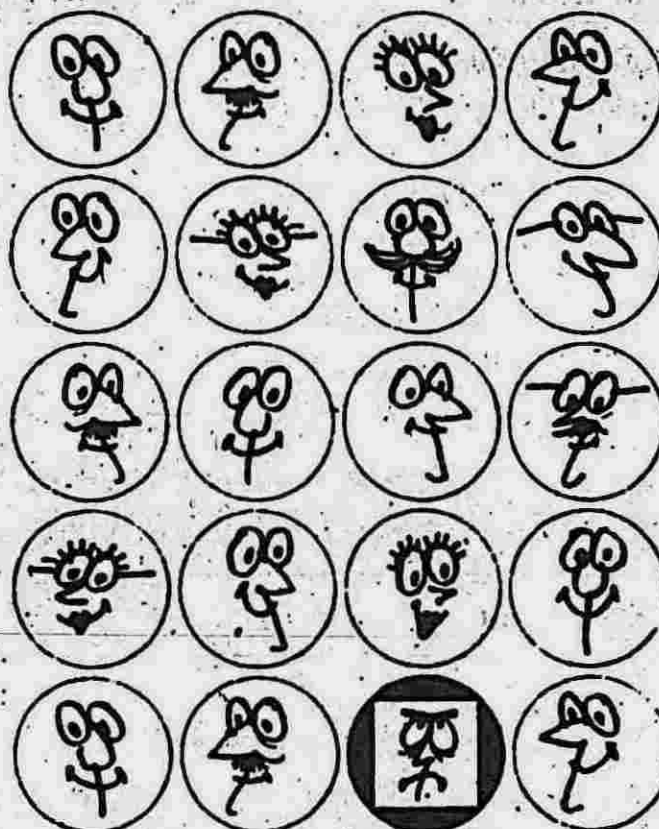

ANNIE MAE

Local Theatre

PM&L's Season 14 will begin with "The Roar of the Greasepaint -- The Smell of the Crowd," the musical production which opens Sat., Oct. 12, at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St., Antioch. The remaining performances are scheduled for Friday and Saturday evenings, Oct. 18, 19, 25 and 26. Curtain time for all performances is 8:30 p.m., and you should call 395-9702 to reserve your seats.

This musical won immediate critical acclaim when it opened on Broadway some years ago. Written by Leslie Bricusse and Anthony Newley, "The Roar of the Greasepaint" deals, in a fashion reminiscent of Laurel and Hardy, with the game of life.

Along the way, "The Roar of the Greasepaint" leaves a number of haunting hit tunes. Probably the best-known among them is the great "Who Can I Turn To."

Bob Bundy directs the PM&L

production of this provocative and moving play, and Aileen Biel is stage manager.

Season tickets are still available. The price is now $10.00 per ticket for the 5 shows of the season.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

In the Bible in St. Matthew 5 Jesus said "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." This passage is read this week in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "UNREALITY" at Christian Science church services Sunday.

From SCIENCE AND HEALTH WITH KEY TO THE SCRIPTURES by Mary Baker Eddy we read: "God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God. Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago."

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rt. 173 and Harden, Antioch, Ill. begin at 11 a.m. All are welcome to hear the truth that heals; and care for children is provided.

The Town Crier

Hear ye!

I want to thank those of you who called or wrote: "What happened to The Town Crier last week?"

I left the column out of the paper just to see if anyone would miss it, and the response was overwhelming.

Now that I know both of you appreciate this delightful column, I'll make sure it appears every week.

EVER NOTICE that the voices on commercials are louder than those on the regular TV programs? It's as if they realize the message must carry all of the way to your refrigerator.

THE ROTARY CLUB of Antioch heard an excellent talk last Thursday by Jane Craner, Antioch High School art teacher, who told the story of how her students painted the mural on the side of the Antioch Tailor Shop, brightening the downtown area.

In other communities - Chicago, for example - students have used such murals to express feelings of violence and frustration. Antioch's mural is a delightful scene.

"I think this reflects something of our students," said Mrs. Craner. "This is the way they feel about our community. Everything is bigger and brighter - the sky, the grass, the flowers, the birds - even the rainbow."

IT WAS RALPH Waldo Emerson who said:

"Though we travel the world over to find the beautiful, we must carry it with us or we find it not."

RECEIVED WORD this week that a close friend has passed away.

A Catholic priest, Father Joseph Dorff, died suddenly while celebrating Mass at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis.

Probably no one in Antioch knew him, except the Gaas, who have sons at St. Norbert. But Father Dorff was one of the most intelligent gentlest and most sensitive men I have ever met. He was still young, in his 50s.

Just minutes before he died, Father Dorff delivered his final message to the college parish. He commented on the Gospel about the fool who was busy building barns while God was about to require his life of him.

"The question," Father Dorff said, "is not so much what should I invest in order to gain security - but what should my portfolio look like? The real question is: What is worth investing a whole life in?"

His brother, the Rev. Francis Dorff, provided the answer at the funeral liturgy:

"Joe's final answer to that question was not 'training monkeys' or 'teaching students' or 'spiritually directing seminarians' or any other job description. It was simply praising God in whatever you wind up doing."

Hear ye.

PM&L Presents Annual Awards

In spite of rain and fog, 120 PM&L members, season ticket-holders and friends had an evening full of stars and moonbeams at Lake Lawn Lodge in Wisconsin, celebrating their annual Awards Banquet.

Lyn Zaehler, chairman, with the help of Aileen Biel, and Lou Jones, hosted the event, served as emcees and guided the guests through a fun-filled cocktail hour, a delicious meal, a delightful program and dancing afterwards.

Most important, however, were the awards and the happy and proud people who received them. The honored Mr. Thespis Award, presented yearly by Josef and Valerie Hunley, this year went to three people - Marybeth Bentele for her role as Maria in the "Sound of Music," Dena Fabry for her role of Lady Audley in "Lady Audley's Secret," and Phil Schwartz for his role as Hendrik Hudson in "Rip Van Winkle."

The annual Jackie Awards were given in 11 different categories. Best show of the Season was "Sound of Music," directed by Ken Smouse. The coveted best actress award was won by Dena Fabry as Lady Audley in "Lady Audley's Secret." Best actor was Lou Jones as "The Dirty Old Man." Best supporting actor and actress were Eva Harper as the Mother Abbess in "Sound of Music" and Bob Bundy as the elderly Sir Michael Audley in "Lady Audley's Secret."

Best performance by a young person under 16 went to Jenny Beese for her role as Marta in "The Sound of Music." The best "Cameo" award went to Susan Allen as the Washington Secretary in "Solid Gold Cadillac."

Kathy Hausman received the award for costume coordinator of "Lady Audley's Secret," and Bob Kocmoud won laurels for his set design for "The Sound of Music."

Outstanding Service to PM&L awards went to Jeff Smouse, the youngest ever to receive such an award, and to Bill Sershon who has served PM&L in too many ways to count.

Sequoits Take Aim at Lake Zurich

SPORTS

ANTIOCH'S BILL HARLAND (left) duels a Deerfield runner in the sophomore division of the invitational cross-country meet at Fox River Park. Harland placed fifth in the big field.

Antioch Runners 2nd in Big Meet

Antioch's varsity cross-country team placed second in its first invitational meet Saturday, losing only to Deerfield at Fox River Park.

Deerfield runners placed first, fourth, ninth, 10th and 11th, totaling 35 points. Antioch followed with 53 points as Kevin Walpole sprinted home second.

Please turn to page 15

Antioch's Sequoits will be out to break a three-game losing streak Saturday.

But it won't be easy. The opponents will be the Lake Zurich Bears, a pretty tough team.

The 2 p.m. game at the local field will be Antioch's annual Parents Day contest. Dads and Moms of the players are being invited to sit in a special section of the stands on the 50-yard line.

WHILE ANTIOCH was losing 7-0 in the rain at Cary-Grove Saturday, Lake Zurich was suffering a heartbreaking 20-16 loss to Wauconda's strong team.

Wauconda triumphed only because of two bizarre plays -- a long run after a recovered fumble and a 76 yard run after a fake punt and a bad pass from center.

Lake Zurich will be bringing some talented players to Antioch, including quarterback Dave Moenning and split end Ted Kaczor, who caught five passes against Wauconda.

ANTIOCH HAS been inconsistent at quarterback and Coach Roy Nelson early this week still wasn't sure of a starter.

Antioch was incomplete on all five of its passes against Cary-Grove and picked up only 46 yards rushing.

Halfback Dave Moore, a long gainer in early games, played only briefly because of a thigh injury.

THE ANTIOCH defense was missing two of its stars, Terry Lear and Chick Smith, but did quite a job. The Sequoits recovered seven fumbles and intercepted two passes.

The offensive players were thanking the defensive for getting the ball, but then they couldn't do much with it.

"We'll have some changes this Saturday," Coach Nelson said. "I think we can get these kids up."

HE PRAISED the defensive work of Dave Boegarts, who recovered two fumbles; Jon Bodin, who intercepted a pass and Frank Pleviak, who came back from a butcher shop accident in which he lost a finger. Pleviak intercepted a pass and returned it 34 yards.

"One more block and he would have gone all the way," Coach Nelson said.

It was another tough one for the Sequoits. The first half was played in a downpour and the middle of the field was mud. Antioch had shown the ability to move the ball in previous games and hopes to move it again this Saturday against Lake Zurich.

In another game, one that could eventually decide the conference championship, Warren plays at Grant. Each team is undefeated after four games.

Antioch Frosh Really Romp

Antioch's freshman football team evened its season record at 2-2 last weekend by thumping the visiting Trojans of Cary-Grove 36-0.

The young Sequoits took an early lead and then ran away with the game. Kenn Rosenbrock swept right end for 16 yards and a touchdown early in the first quarter. Tim and Tom Huebner did the scoring in the second period, Tim on a 12 yard pass from Tom Dixon and Tom on a one-yard plunge. Tom then added a two-point conversion behind the wedge blocking of the Antioch lineman.

ANTIOCH WENT scoreless in the third quarter but in the last period Rosenbrock made a nifty run up the middle for 39 yards and Mike Terry returned a pass interception 26 yards for a touchdown. Tom Huebner and Dixon ran for extra points.

Antioch's defense again proved tough as it intercepted two passes (by Mike Terry and Chris Ano) and recovered three

Alice Johnson Wins Football Contest Again

Alice Johnson is vacationing in Texas and she isn't going to believe this when the word reaches her.

She won The Antioch News' football contest for the second week in a row.

Alice picked Cary-Grove to beat Antioch by seven points and that's exactly what happened.

The previous week she had picked Warren to beat Antioch 31-6. The final score was 33-6.

So for the second straight week we are sending her the first place check of $15.

Her son, Curt, was amazed when we called and told him.

"She said she was just picking the numbers out of the air," he said. "I can't believe it."

Alice and her husband,

Walter, own Johnson's Petite Resort on Petite Lake.

SECOND PLACE in last week's contest was won by Charles W. Klemz, who picked Cary-Grove to beat Antioch by six points. He wins a $10 gift certificate at Rittenhouse & Embree Lumber Co.

Third prize, four tickets to Saturday's Northwestern-Oregon game, goes to Tom McAvoy, who picked Cary-Grove to beat Antioch by eight points, 21-13.

ANOTHER CONTEST appears in today's Antioch News. The trick is to forecast the score of Saturday's Antioch-Lake Zurich game.

First prize once again will be $15. Second prize will be a $10 gift certificate at Four Squires and third prize a $5 gift certificate at BJ's Fashions for Men or BJ's Closet.

Be sure to enter. If you aren't a football expert you still have a good chance to win. All it takes is some of that ESP that Alice Johnson has been displaying.

Little Leaguers Have Their Night

Trophies were presented Thursday to Antioch's top boys' baseball teams.

The occasion was the annual Little League Awards Night and the honors went to the first and second place teams in the Little, Minor and Babe Ruth leagues.

Police Chief Jack Wells presented the "manager of the year" award to Ron Sheedlo of the Little League champion Giants, sponsored by Rittenhouse & Embree Lumber Co.

BERNIE GUTOWSKI, Little League President, gave special mention to various committees that helped with fund-raising projects. Pat and Jack Christensen and George and Mary Ann Skopek handled the pancake breakfast, and the beef drawing was conducted by Bill Naumann and Ron Giebelhaus.

Special thanks were given to Nancy Berchtold, concession stand co-ordinator, and to the mothers of players who worked during the season.

Mr. Gutowski introduced the four managers of Antioch's Little League and Babe Ruth trounament teams—Ron Giebelhaus, who managed the 13 year olds; Jack McAvoy, the 15 year olds; Bill Naumann, the Little League National tournament team, and Bob Berchtold, the Waukega "ronco Invitational.

THE QUEST speaker, Carmen Fanzone of the Chicago Cubs, related his experience in professional baseball and answered questions from the boys, some of them in amusing style.

Little League vice-president Dick Kessler presented trophies to Minor League teams. First place went to Manager Ron Raven's Tigers and second place to Dennis Horton's Cardinals.

Jack McAvoy, vice-president of the Babe Ruth League, presented trophies to Manager Tom Brophy's Championship Walsh's All-Seasons team, and the second-place Advertisers,

Sequoit Sophs Get 2nd Win

The Sophomore Sequoits beat Cary-Grove 7-0 Saturday to even their record at two wins and two losses.

Brian McGrain threw a 39 yard touchdown pass to Jeff Mihovilovich early in the fourth quarter to account for the only TD. Jim Peterson kicked the extra point for Antioch.

The game was a close-fought defensive struggle played in a rainstorm that couldn't stay away for more than a few minutes at a time.

The rain let up enough in the fourth quarter for McGrain to take advantage of the tightly-drawn Cary defense.

Todd Tenech, Wally Wallraf and Bruce Keskemety ran well for Antioch and the threat of the run set up the touchdown pass.

Antioch's defensive unit allowed only 104 yards but was severely tested late in the fourth quarter. As Cary threatened, the Antioch interior line was anchored by Don Norwick, Rich Dauck, Forest Miller and Mike Brady. John Kakacek, Mike Vos and Conrad Knutsen also were almost errorless on defense.

The Sophomore "B" team played Kenosha St. Joseph Saturday morning and lost 30-6. Antioch's touchdown came on a Brian Andres to Dan DiGiovanni pass.

Saturday the Sophs take on the Lake Zurich Bears here. Lake Zurich has a 3-0-1 record and leads the sophomore conference.

The annual round robin trophy was presented to the Astros by Chief Wells, pinch-hitting for Mayor Robert Wilton who couldn't be there. The Astros were managed by George Skopek.

Proceeds went to help support the Little League and the Aqua Center. Bonnie Eder of Lake Villa won a half-beef, Jim Dayton of Antioch a hind-quarter and A. Gabriel of Salem a fore-quarter.

Mr. Gutowski thanked the league's officers for their hard work and introduced them as the 1975 officers. Gutowski will be president again; Dick Kessler vice-president of the Minor League; Bill Naumann vice-president of the Little League; Jack McAvoy vice-president of the Babe Ruth league; Bob Berchtold secretary and Jack Fields treasurer.

Mr. Gutowski said a meeting will be held in January for anyone interested in helping during the 1975 season.
